

Erasmus+ KA107

University Mohamed Khider of Biskra

Politecnico di Milano - DASTU

Architectural and Landscape Cultural Heritage. Knowledge, Research, Preservation and Reuse in the fragile vernacular territories

Patrimoine culturel architectural et du paysage.

Connaissance, recherche, preservation et reutilisation dans les territoires vernaculaires fragiles

web conference | saturday, December 12th 2020 | link

organized by

Francesco Augelli

Susanna Bortolotto

PROGRAMME

Morning session

9:30-10:15 Institutional greetings and introduction

10:15-10:30

AZIZ BENTALEB - Directeur du Centre international des oasis et des montagnes (Maroc)

Dynamique de la désertification dans le milieu oasien et perspective de réhabilitation. Cas vallée du draa moyen au sud du Maroc.

10:30-10:45

FARID HIRECHE - PhD candidate in Heritage, AUSONIUS Research Unit at Bordeaux Montaigne University
Water Cultural Heritage, case of Beni-Snouss in the bioregion of Tlemcen (Algeria)

10:45-11:00

ASMAE BOUAOUINATE - Professeur de Géographie du Tourisme, Université Hassan II – Casablanca, Faculté des Lettres et des Sciences Humaines de Mohammed VI, Laboratoire LADES.

La Route des Mille Kasbahs au Maroc: un circuit touristique de valorisation de l'architecture en terre et des territoires oasiens.

11:00-11:15

ALBERTA CAZZANI - Architect PhD, Associate Professor in Architectural Preservation, Politecnico di Milano, DASTU Department.

Historical agricultural landscape: a heritage to conserve and valorize

11:15-11:30

NOUREDDINE ZEMMOURI - Full Professor, University Mohamed Khider of Biskra, Department of Architecture
Lighting and "paysage". A question of culture (Algeria)

11:30-11:45

KENZA TORAI - PhD candidate, University Mohamed Khider of Biskra, LACOMOFAL Laboratory (Algeria)
Urban agriculture to revive the natural oasis heritage - City of Biskra

11:45-12:00

NELLY CATTANEO - Architect PhD, Professor on contract, Politecnico di Milano, ABC department

The impact of the 19th century transport systems on overseas traditional routes, settlements and housing: the case of the Massawa-Asmara axis in Eritrea

12:00-12:15

SERENA MASSA - Archaeologist PhD, Professor on contract, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore di Milano, Department of History, Archaeology, History of Art

The Mediterranean water heritage. Orchards- gardens ancient technologies and modern sustainable approaches: the case of Pantelleria island (Sicily Channel)

Afternoon session14:15 Introduction*14:30-14:45

SALIMA NAJI - DPLG architect (École Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture de Paris-La-Villette) and Doctor in Social Anthropology (École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales in Paris)

Moroccan oases, architecture and culture of the common good for an ethic of preservation.

14:45-15:00

SOUMIA BOUZAHER - Professor, University Mohamed Khider of Biskra, Department of Architecture, LACOMOFALaboratory

Mapping the landscape towards an urban decentralization in the micro region of Ziban (Algeria)

15:00-15:15

NJOUD ALANBARI - Politecnico di Milano Masters of Science Graduate, Urban Planning and Restoration - Preservation Architect, Diriyah Gate Development Authority, Department of Culture and Heritage - Turaif Site Preservation Senior Officer, Saudi Arabia

Dumat Aljandal Archaeological oasis – Museum of traditional agronomic techniques and astronomy (North of Saudi Arabia)

15:15-15:30

ALESSANDRA BATTISTELLI - Architect PhD in Technologies and Management of Cultural Heritage

Cepitá in Santander, COLOMBIA: a raw-earth village and the “integral” landscape heritage to be discovered, enhanced and preserved

15:30-15:45

DAVIDE STRADA - Architect, Specialist in Architectural and Landscape Heritage Preservation

Strategies for the preservation and revitalization of a fragile territorial reality: the case of Ganyantoucun rural settlement in Hunan (China, XV sec.)

16:00-16:15

NAJET AROUA - University Mohamed Khider of Biskra, LACOMOFALaboratory

Craft heritage and architecture of Algiers’ countryside “al -Fahs” houses (Algeria)

16:15-16:30

MATTEO COLOMBO - Engineer PhD, Associate Professor, Politecnico di Milano, DICA

Experimental approaches for materials and structures.

16:30-16:45

NOUREDDINE BELGHAR, BELHI GUERIRA – Full Professors, LGEM Laboratory, University of Biskra Algeria.

Environmental characterization of palm wood fiber/clay composite material. Case study the palm wood fiber of the region of Biskra, Algeria.