

Urban Digital Citizenship & the Right to the City

1st JUNE 4.30pm Politecnico di Milano

Campus Leonardo, building 11, Aula B WEBEX - Grazia Concilio's Personal Room

Oren Yiftachel

political and legal geography and holds the chair in urban studies at Ben-Gurion University, Israel, and is an honorary professor at UCL Departments of Geography and DPU (Bartlett).

Prof. Oren Yiftachel teaches urban planning and

His research focuses on critical understandings of space, power and urban society, with a particular interest in an international comparative analysis of Israel/Palestine. Yiftachel has published The Power of planning (Kluwer, 2000), Ethnocracy: land and identity politics in Israel/Palestine (Penn 2006); Emptied lands: the legal geography of the Bedouins (with Kedar and Amara, Stanford, 2018); Land/power: from ethnocracy to creeping apartheid (Resling, 2021).

Yiftachel is an activist in a range of human rights and social justice organizations and a cofounder of a Palestinian/Israeli peace movement— "a land for all".

organized by: Grazia Concilio Maryam Karimi

contact:

maryam.karimi@polimi.it

